A Message From Our President

As August begins, you, as a business owner, need to ensure that you have your plan in place to secure your business in case of a hurricane. For those of us who went through Hurricane Irma recently, we know that even without a direct hit there are severe implications for your business because of loss of power and Wi-Fi. One of our guest speakers at our next Wake up Breakfast held on Tuesday, August 20th will be Coral Springs Emergency Manager Alexander Falcone. Alex will provide you with the latest emergency plans from the City of Coral Springs. I hope to see you there! In the interim, please visit the Chamber's website for information and checklists to review your businesses' emergency plan. Click here

Have you had difficulty hiring qualified employees? Well, you are not alone. Based on the results of the Florida Chamber's third quarter Small Business survey Florida is the 18th most diversified economy in the country. There are rising numbers of open jobs and a declining amount of people looking for jobs. The survey indicated that small businesses are most concerned about the following (in order):

Workforce Quality, Economic Uncertainty,
Growth Management Process, Government
Regulations and Healthcare costs.

I had an amazing opportunity to join Coconut Creek Mayor Sandy Welch this past month and met with several amazing corporations in the Coconut Creek Technology Park. One of the businesses indicated that the reason they moved from Palm Beach to Broward was that they were unable to find the workforce they needed. Clearly, keeping our talent here is a huge issue for business. At July's' Trustee luncheon, Bob Swindell, CEO of the Greater Ft Lauderdale Alliance informed the group that the Alliance and other community leaders are diligently working on developing the talent pipeline. It was great to have NEXTgen at this meeting because they are our future talent!

Congratulations to our newest Chamber Board member-elects: Mike Del Pozo, Spiro Edgos, Leandro Figuereo, Dr. Juan Nogueras, Joy Owens Arauz and Aimee Tarte. Also, congratulations to our reappointed Board members, Michael Leopold and Ron Renzy. Ron will become our new Chair-Elect when Andrea Jacobs becomes our Board Chair.

I am looking forward to working with all of you! Wishing all of you a safe back to school month and I hope you had an opportunity to enjoy yourself over the summer.

To your continued success,
Cindy

"Being a member of the Coral Springs Regional Chamber has been a valuable tool to help grow and promote business. CSRC offers a number of networking opportunities, as well as educational programs, to help owners develop their business. They not only give small businesses a voice in government but also help connect members within the community. It's not just about building businesses it's also about building relationships and giving back to the community. I love being involved and so pleased with the integration and partnership with Coconut Creek Council."
