LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Praying for You

Prior to 2011, I was one of those people who welcomed spring. But like many Cullmanites, spring reminds me of more than blooming flowers and sunshine. It means changing the batteries in my weather radio, cleaning out my storm shelter, and reflecting on all I have to be thankful for. The year of 2011 marked a new beginning for many of us.

How many times have you been asked, "Where were you when the tornadoes hit Cullman?" I won't bore you with the details of my experience (although it was an incredible story), but I will tell you the end of my story. One hour after the second round of tornadoes hit Cullman, I found myself trudging through rubble. My church was destroyed, downtown Cullman lay in shambles, and all I could do at that moment was weep. It all seemed so surreal. Things like this only happened in the movies or to other people. Of course I did what every other Cullmanite was doing – I began to work. Moving trees and cleaning up debris became my world for the next few days. As the hours turned into days, the needs became more and more obvious. Several of my coworkers were compelled to take action. People needed help and people wanted to help. How could we connect those two entities together? We took out a full page ad in The Cullman Times that simply said: Need Help? Want to Help? Need Information? Have Information? We are here to match needs with wants. If you have a question, call us. If you have something you want to contribute, call us. Want to volunteer, call us. The outpouring of love and generosity overwhelmed my spirit. Immediately, calls and emails poured in. Volunteers came to our office by the hundreds, most of which were churches. Episcopalians, Methodists, Baptists, Catholics, Presbyterians, Nazarenes, Church of Christ, Church of God, literally every denomination was there to lend a hand. Nonprofits joined as one. Business men and women forgot they were competitors and worked side by side. Neighbor helping neighbor. Honestly, the next few days and weeks were a blur, but one thing is as clear to me today as it was back in 2011. There was no division amongst us. We were all united in one spirit to take care of and love one another – just as Christ commanded. It is with that spirit of unity that God placed a seed in my heart.

LEAH BOLIN

er – just as Christ commanded. It is with that spirit of unity that God placed a seed in my heart.

Why did it take a natural disaster to bring everyone together? I had preconceived ideas about every one of those doctrines – none of which mattered. How powerful and awesome would it be to bring together the church and the business community along with our elected officials, to pray – as one – for our community? Pretty awesome I would say! So let's do it! I am extending a personal invitation to all of you on Wednesday, April 27, 2016 at 7:30 a.m. at Loft 212 for the 2nd Annual President's Prayer Breakfast, but it is really a community prayer breakfast. It will be our time to come back together, just as we did on April 27, 2011, as one people, to pray for one another and with one another. There will be special music by "Almost Brothers", sponsored by WKUL-FM, and a testimony by Andy Marshall, a successful businessman from Tennessee, and a very dear friend of mine. It will be a glorious celebration. Praying for all of you and hoping to see you there. Thanks to our Presenting Sponsor Seventh Street Baptist Church, and our Corporate Sponsors Edward Jones – Ron Mann, Grace Episcopal Church and St. John's Evangelical Protestant Church.

SMALL BUSINESS OF THE MONTH – MARCH 2016

On behalf of the Cullman Area Chamber of Commerce, the Retail Committee would like to congratulate Jack's Western & Outdoor Wear as the March Small Business of the Month, sponsored by Cook's Pest Control. As long time staples of the Cullman retail community, they are currently celebrating their 40th year of being in business. Throughout their rich history, they transformed and evolved from just being a western store, to carrying merchandise that fits each customer's lifestyle. They currently provide jobs to 14 full and part time employees.

In November of 2013, they opened a new 20,000 square foot store where they are able to offer over 20,000 pairs of shoes and boots, as well as clothing and accessories for the whole family. They now carry a large selection of work boots and apparel, Columbia Sportswear and Footwear. If trendier merchandise is what you're after, they've added that too; Frye, Johnston & Murphy, BedStu, Sebago, Alegria, Timberland, Naughty Monkey and more! In addition to offering great brands, Jack's Western & Outdoor always strives to keep competitive prices.

They are annual sponsors of the Cullman Sheriff's Rodeo, the Morgan County Sheriff's Rodeo, Bull Bash and the West Point Band Boosters Rodeo, support both City and County athletic departments, and actively participate in the Cullman Christmas Open House. Throughout the year, they stay active in donations and support to local charities, while over Christmas, they'll provide help to DHR with clothing and footwear needs for the children. They also sponsor children from the Angel Tree at First United Methodist Church each year.

Their store is open seven

1st Quarter Industry Tour – Rehau

Submitted & written by: ABI Committee's Industry Tour Liaison – Lisa Dickinson, Alabama Career Center System

On March 17, 2016 the Agriculture, Business and Industry (ABI) Committee of the Cullman Area Chamber of Commerce hosted its 1st Quarter Industry Tour at REHAU, sponsored by Inland Buildings. REHAU, is the leader in "Unlimited Polymer Solutions," and is the worldwide brand for polymer-based innovations and systems in construction, automotive and industry. The Cullman manufacturing plant is an automotive supplier plant that produces automotive parts such as bumpers, spoilers, and body side moldings for manufacturers including Mercedes, BMW, Nissan and others.

REHAU's Plant Manager Albert von Pelser and Training Supervisor Albert Twitty spoke to tour participants about the history of REHAU, what the Cullman facility and other facilities produce, and then led the group on a very insightful and educational tour of the facility. The tour participants learned REHAU was founded in 1948 in the Bavarian town of Rehau, Germany by three employees. This privately held company, has approximately 20,000 employees world-wide at more than 170 locations. REHAU's Cullman facility has approximately 1,100 employees.

REHAU built their manufacturing facility in Cullman in the late 1990s, and since that time have expanded their facility twice, more than doubling their square footage and adding advanced technology and equipment to ensure more efficiency and productivity. In 2014, REHAU also completed another expansion, a state of the art $3 million, 12,000 square foot Automotive Technical Center adjacent to their manufacturing facility. It is REHAU Automotive group's first technical center to be located in North America and represents a major investment in Cullman.

The Automotive Technical Center enables REHAU to bundle production, engineering and development capacities together in one location. REHAU also uses the Automotive Technical Center as a training venue for technical center employees and customers in conjunction with its professional training department, REHAU Academy. REHAU has partnered with local educators to offer paid apprenticeships through the Cullman School System's Fast Track for Industry program and Wallace State Community College.

During the tour, Albert von Pelser, shared with the group that in recent years' bumpers have changed drastically. He said "now bumpers house electronics, sensors, and high-tech safety equipment and these electronics are combined in our bumper systems. With the installation of the latest technology such as parking and back-up sensors, lane change assistant, and even short-range radar, meets the highest technical demands and safety standards and contribute to reducing the risk of accidents on the road."

The tour participants learned that REHAU develops and produces these complex bumper systems and supplies the finished products ready for installation. They produce components in over 500,000 color options and features.

Albert also shared with the group that through the expansions, Cullman's production capabilities have been upgraded and expanded with new injection molding equipment and fabrication devices as well as conversion of the existing paint line to an environmentally friendly water-borne paint system.

Tour participants also learned about REHAU's Just in Sequence technology. Albert von Pelser said "it is fairly easy to use a Just in Time technology because that is delivering materials by a specific time, but Just in Sequence is much more difficult." An example of how the Just in Sequence works is a bumper that is produced in the Cullman plant that morning, is transported to the Mercedes plant in Vance, Alabama in the exact sequence needed for that particular bumper to be installed on the correct automobile in the or two where the Just in Sequence wasn't met.

REHAU's Cullman location also produces under-floor heating systems and gasket seals through their Industry division but the majority of their production is for the automobile manufacturers.

Thank you REHAU for a great educational session and industry tour! Thank you also for being a part of the Cullman community and providing excellent employment opportunities to over a thousand employees in our area.

The 2nd Quarter Industry tour will be held at Goat Island Brewing on June 9th and is being sponsored by HH Technologies.

If your Industry would like to take part in one of these quarterly tours, or if your company would like to sponsor a tour, please contact Ben Smith, Director of Small Business & Workforce Solutions at the Cullman Area Chamber of Commerce at 256-734-0454 or Lisa Dickinson, our ABI Committee's Tour Liaison at 256-734-5580.

Annual Meeting and Gala - review

The Chamber's 73rd Annual Meeting & Gala took place on Thursday, March 3rd where a crowd of approximately 600 attended and enjoyed a "Downton Abbey" themed program, where guest speaker Peter Good delivered an inspiring message centered around the idea of "Great Leaders Serve." In keeping with the theme of the era, the dinner, décor and attendees' attire were reflective of the 1920s. The passing of the gavel from outgoing chair, Jason Grimmett of Drinkard Development, to the 2016-17 Chamber Chair, Sammie Danford of United Way of Cullman County, kicked off the night, followed by an Annual Report of the previous year's accomplishments under Grimmett's leadership. The Chamber also presented several awards. Of 12 nominees, Cullman Eye Specialists was awarded Small Business of the Year; and Stephanie Wood, that represented United Way of Cullman County, was bestowed the honor of the first ever Ambassador of the Year Award. The Emma Marie Eddleman Citizenship Award was given to the Honorable Judge Kim Chaney of the Cullman County District Court system, who has devoted his life to public service and the betterment of our community. The Cullman Mayors Association also presented the Lucille Galin Public Service Award, which was given to Peggy Smith, Director of the Cullman Economic Development Agency. Everyone had a great time and enjoyed the opportunity to come out and support the Cullman community and to celebrate the leadership of those whose efforts continuously help to put Cullman on the map. Thank you to the Chamber's Board of Directors, members, and volunteers, community leaders, business owners and elected officials for your continued investment and support of the Chamber. Also, to a thanks is given to our sponsors of the Annual Meeting: Presenting Sponsor: People's Bank of Alabama, Corporate Sponsors: Warren Averett CPAs & Advisors, and Alatech; Entertainment Sponsor, Cullman Chrysler Dodge Jeep Ram. MINIMUM WAGE IS A TRAINING WAGE

The Chamber of Commerce's Governmental Affairs Committee recently polled our membership for opinions about raising the minimum wage. The non-partisan survey was sent to gather our member's opinions and fulfill the GAC's function to educate our community about issues that affect us. While the questions were developed under less than stellar research principles, we had an overwhelming response from 265 people. Eighty five respondents felt this was so important that they took the time to give thoughtful opinions, replies and suggestions. Most of the respondents' opinions could be grouped into three areas and are worth sharing.

Minimum wage is a training wage and was never meant to be a long term sustained pay rate. Cullman's local businesses use minimum wage as a tool for entry level employees who are transitioning into the job market. The goal is not to raise a family on a minimum wage salary. Many of the respondents shared specific details of how they hire and progress good employees through initial training and give progressive raises to retain good employees. The initial minimum wage period is seen as a "dating" period to assure the employee is dependable and teachable.

Develop a Pay for

Performance plan versus a "mandatory minimum wage hand-out". The most common recommendation throughout the survey was about paying for performance. Several business owners use aggressive pay increases or bonuses every three to six months to encourage their employees to learn new skills and see the results of their hard work in their paycheck. Our local businesses and employees answered that they are concerned that increasing the minimum wage without having to earn it through hard work and dedication will crumble the American work ethic. Give a hand up not a hand out!

Increasing the minimum wage will cause all wages to increase and only compound the problem. If you have 200 employees and 10 are at minimum wage then you will have to raise 10 employee's wages. Eventually you will also have to raise the other 190 employee's wages to avoid employee dissatisfaction and wage compression. With raised wages for all employees, the cost of producing the product will raise and inflation will occur. The vicious cycle will continue. Many respondents encouraged the use of our free market enterprise which focuses on supply and demand.

Discussion of minimum wage changes is a hotly debated topic. Many local businesses already progress their good, dependable employees through an initial employment period and offer raises that compete with the proposed new mandatory rates. The one bonus is that new hires have to earn this rate and not receive it as a hand out!

YPCullman – New Young Professionals Group to Meet on Cinco de Mayo

The Cullman Area Chamber of Commerce Young Professionals Group (YP Cullman) is a professional development program that encourages YPs to take ownership in the community and provides opportunities to grow so these young individuals are inspired to lead with enthusiasm, determination and passion. YPCullman is an outlet for the next generation of leaders to channel their energy and enhance their leadership potential. This new program is designed for young professionals, ages 22-39. Over time, we envision

Cullman Area Chamber of Commerce
YOUNG PROFESSIONALS

YP Cullman members to take strides in several facets of the Cullman area, including but not limited to: community awareness and concern, committee involvement, entrepreneurial roundtables, and eventually leadership roles.

The Chamber recently kicked off their first quarterly program for YPCullman, which was held on St. Patrick's Day at Karma's

Coffee House in the Warehouse District. Attendees enjoyed a relaxed environment, fun icebreakers, beverages and hors d'oeuvres, and the chance to network and mingle with other like-minded young professionals. The Chamber's second YPCullman event will take place on another fun holiday – Cinco de Mayo (May 5th) – at the newly opened local brewery, Goat Island Brewing Company. This time, we will still network and have some fun, but attendees will also get to enjoy a tour of Goat Island, hear a little bit of history about its founding, and see what they have to offer. Come out for a great night of fun and networking as we get to know one another and discuss the future of the Cullman area. Youth Leadership Cullman County Holds March Session

The 2015-16 Youth Leadership Cullman County class had their eighth session on Wednesday, March 9th. The session was "State Government Day", and the youth traveled to Montgomery with Leadership Cullman County to meet with our state representatives and witness the legislation in action. On the two-hour drive from Cullman to Montgomery, the youth received the opportunity to have some one-on-one time with their adult Leadership mentor, asking in-depth questions about the realities of working in their field of choice. This candid interview process allowed each student an honest observation and perspective about the career path he or she may take. Once at the Capitol, the combined group enjoyed a historical tour and luncheon where a legislative update was delivered by Senator Paul Bussman (District 4) and Representatives Corey Harbison (District 12), Randall Shedd (District 11), and Ed Henry (District 9). Following this, the student leaders enjoyed a tour of the State House Chamber led by Clay Redden, where they conducted a mock session and learned how a bill becomes a law.

Thereafter, they took a tour of the State House Senate where Senator Paul Bussman took time out of his busy schedule to further discuss several facets of legislature and explain what actually takes place in the Senate. After this, the youth were happy to meet with their mentors once again and compare legislative adventures on the drive back home to Cullman. This month, the Youth Leadership Cullman County class of 2015-16 will graduate on Tuesday, April 19th at Belle Vue Hall at Stone Bridge Farms. Thank you to Presenting Sponsor Wallace State Community College – Future Foundation, and to our Breakfast Sponsor McGriff Industries, for your support and investment in our youth.

The conference will equip attendees to create their own visionary path. Key speakers – visionaries in their own fields – will inspire the more than 400 people who attend locally, and the more than 100,000 people who will attend the event live in Atlanta, or at hundreds of other simulcast locations in more than 20 countries. Some of the keynote speakers include: Kat Cole – Group President, FOCUS Brands, Inc. (including Cinnabon®, Moe's Southwest Grill®, Auntie Anne's®, and more), Steve Wozniak – Co-founder of Apple, Inc., Henry Cloud – Acclaimed Leadership Expert, Clinical Psychologist, and Best-Selling Author, Nick Saban – Head Football Coach, The University of Alabama and several more!

The Chamber and Chick-fil-A invite you and your organization to attend Leadercast Cullman on May 6, 2016 at the campus of Daystar Church in Good Hope. For more information and to purchase tickets, please visit <http://event.leadercast.com/location/cullman>.
