Chamber unveiling ‘Think Local’ campaign at March Community Luncheon

This month’s Community Luncheon will be centered around a topic near and dear to the Cullman Area Chamber of Commerce: Thinking local.

Guest speaker Melissa Warnke with the Alabama Retail Association will emphasize that very mindset when she stops by the All Steak Restaurant on Friday, March 16 from 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m. Per usual, the Luncheon will be held in the banquet room and feature a delectable meal and ample networking opportunities.

Tickets for Luncheon are $15 for Chamber members and $20 for future members.

Contact the Chamber at 256-734-0454 or info@cullmanchamber.org to reserve a ticket.

Chamber hires Brittney Hudson as Director of Community Development

The Cullman Area Chamber of Commerce & Visitor Center is pleased to announce the appointment of Brittney Hudson as Director of Community Development.

This newly created position is vital to the growth of Cullman County and to the success of the Chamber’s 5-year strategic plan. Key objectives Brittney will immediately begin tackling include: Addressing the area’s housing shortage, fostering downtown connectivity and revitalization in Cullman and Hanceville, and developing a plan to recruit people by promoting all of Cullman County as a “live, work, play” community.

The area’s housing shortage will take early priority, with Brittney set to lead the Chamber’s new Housing Taskforce. She will organize a housing assessment study to better identify Cullman County’s housing needs. Once these gaps are known, Brittney will...
The Cullman Area Chamber of Commerce & Visitor Center has waited 75 years for the 2018 Annual Meeting & Gala. Now, it’s only days away.

This year’s milestone event, presented by Peoples Bank of Alabama, will take place Thursday, March 8 at Stone Bridge Farms. Doors open at 5:30 p.m., and the program starts at 6 p.m., with a festive after party to follow.

In conjunction with its theme, “Classic Cullman,” the Chamber is planning a night full of memories, history and celebration honoring its past, present and future.

Highlights of the evening include:

• The Chad Fisher Band, featuring members of St. Paul & The Broken Bones
• The Hall of History, with decade-by-decade displays highlighting the Chamber’s and community’s past 75 years
• An impeccable 1940s-inspired meal
• A 75th Anniversary commemorative video
• A time capsule
• And more!

The Annual Meeting & Gala allows the Chamber to reflect on the past year’s achievements under Chair Jason Spann, of American Proteins, Inc., who will pass the gavel to Chair-Elect Susan Copeland, of Wallace State Community College. Winners of the Emma Marie Eddleman Citizenship Award, Small Business of the Year, Ambassador of the Year, and the Mayor’s Association’s Lucille Galin Award will also be recognized.

All tables and general admission tickets have been sold. For more information or to be put on the waitlist, contact the Chamber at 256-734-0454 or info@cullmanchamber.org.

The 75th Annual Meeting & Gala is presented by Peoples Bank of Alabama. EvaBank, Justin Dyar and Team of Lake Homes Realty, and Warren Averett, LLC are Corporate Sponsors, and James R. Smith Trucking is Post Party Sponsor.

Shane Quick returning to Morning Blend to talk Rock the South

Shane Quick has grown accustomed to booking the headliner … not actually being one.

For the second straight year, however, the local entrepreneur is flipping the script, returning to the Cullman Area Chamber of Commerce’s Morning Blend to talk all things Rock the South and, more specifically, the two-day country music festival’s far-reaching impact on the community.

Presented by Karma’s Coffee House and sponsored by the Pilot Club of Cullman, this month’s Morning Blend will be Wednesday, March 21 at 8:00 a.m. After a one-month hiatus, the event is heading back to Rumors Deli — though please note it will be at the local eatery’s brand new location at 601 4th St. SW near the corner of Main Avenue and U.S. Highway 278.

The Chamber staff welcomes members and visitors to enjoy delicious coffee and great discussion at our free Morning Blend on the third Wednesday of each month. For more information, contact the Chamber at 256-734-0454 or info@cullmanchamber.org.
A lot of folks still ask, “What is this EPIC group?” Well, it's a ton of different things. EPIC can be a welcome wagon for a young professional that just moved to Cullman County. It can be an easy way to meet and network with other young professionals. It can be a way to learn something you maybe didn’t know. It can be a way to unwind and have a little fun. It can be whatever you make it.

Emerging Professionals Impacting Cullman came out of the gate hot in 2018. We held our EPIC Mardi Gras Membership Drive at Mae's Food Hall on Tuesday, February 13. We had a bunch of fun signing up young professionals for yearly memberships. If you aren’t aware, an annual membership is the way to go. That assures you get in to all of EPIC’s premium events. If you missed the Membership Drive, it’s not too late to become a member. We accept membership applications, which can be found on the Chamber website, all year round.

EPIC is finalizing plans for a big first quarter social on Thursday, March 29. This event will be unlike any other we’ve ever done. We’re calling it the EPIC Dine-N-Dash Poker Run. We'll eat appetizers at five different downtown hotspots (specific sites to be announced). You’ll receive one poker playing card at each joint, and everyone will play their hand when we end the night at Mae’s Food Hall. Five card stud poker rules. Winners will receive some awesome prizes donated from local businesses.

In attending this event or joining EPIC, please contact the Cullman Area Chamber of Commerce at 256-734-0454 or info@cullmanchamber.org. Thanks to our quarterly sponsor, AGCOR Steel, and to our EPIC Presenting Sponsor, Drinkard Development.
The Cullman Area Chamber of Commerce & Visitor Center would like to congratulate Anytime Fitness as February’s Small Business of the Month, sponsored by All Steak Restaurant.

Anytime Fitness, which opened its Cullman location in 2015, strives to meet and surpass the expectations of everyone who walks through its doors. The facility operates 24/7/365 and provides members access to more than 3,000 clubs worldwide. Anytime is equipped with state-of-the-art cardio and strength machines, as well as free weights, and also has a virtual class system available.

Anytime Cullman’s uniquely qualified staff of five aims to assist all members, no matter their background or fitness level. Some of the ways they do this are through free fitness consultations, training sessions and Saturday boot camps held at least once a month and every weekend in May.

“At Anytime Fitness, we get to know our members on a personal and first-name basis,” said local Anytime owner Stephen Gannon. “As one of our earliest members remarked just recently, ‘It’s a family, not a gym.’

“One of the greatest satisfactions we receive is recognizing the tremendous success stories of our members. The privilege of celebrating these victories is the most rewarding aspect of our business.”

Anytime Fitness is highly involved in the Chamber and the community. Gannon and Co. regularly attend the Chamber’s Community Luncheon, Morning Blend, and Biscuit & Business events. Additionally, the small business has sponsored the Chamber’s Leadership class, Chamber 201 and Morning Blend, and is set to sponsor March’s Community Luncheon. As for the area, Anytime sponsors sports programs at each local high school and consistently provides donations — both monetary and merchandise — to a number of local charities. The fitness club also gives to local food pantries, hosts blood drives, and sponsors CPR classes to educate its staff, members and the public.

Each month, a sponsoring business helps celebrate and acknowledge the Small Business of the Month winner. If you have a local business you would like to nominate for their outstanding service, please contact Brian Poole at bpoole@cullmanchamber.org. Monthly winners will be automatically nominated for Small Business of the Year, which is presented at the Chamber’s Annual Meeting & Gala.
Chamber’s Youth, Adult Leadership classes keeping busy in 2018

The Cullman Area Chamber of Commerce’s Youth and Adult Leadership classes have been busier than ever so far in 2018, each enjoying a couple of sessions around the community in January and February. Youth Leadership Cullman County’s 2017-18 Presenting Sponsor is R.E. Garrison Trucking, while Leadership Cullman County’s is American Proteins, Inc.

Youth Leadership’s January session was Local Government Day. The students started the morning with a trip to the Water Treatment Plant, where they met Plant Superintendent David Freeman and toured the facility. From there, they headed to the Cullman County Courthouse for question-and-answer sessions with Cullman County Commission Chairman Kenneth Walker and Cullman County Probate Judge Tammy Brown, as well as a mock trial with Cullman County Circuit Judge Greg Nicholas.

February’s Youth Leadership session was Business & Industry Day, sponsored by Royal Technologies Corporation. Students spent the morning soaking in a presentation from the Cullman Economic Development Agency’s Susan Eller and Jamie Troutman before traveling to Walmart Distribution Center #6006 for a tour from Mike Montgomery and Jim Yoho. The class later walked off lunch at Mae’s Food Hall — where they heard from Cullman City Clerk Wesley Moore and Jim Yoho. The class then traveled to City Hall for a Q&A with Cullman Mayor Woody Jacobs before closing with a presentation from Cullman City Clerk Wesley Moore. Breakfast was sponsored by Alabama Archives, Inc., and lunch was sponsored by Jackson & Williams, Attorneys At Law.

Leadership’s January session was Local Government Day. The class kicked off the morning at the Cullman County Economic Development (CCED) office, where they heard from Cullman County Revenue Commissioner Barry Willingham, Cullman County EMA Director Phyllis Little, CCED Project Coordinator Ashley Graves, and Cullman County Mayors Jerry Bartlett (Good Hope) and Bill Oliver (Holly Pond). Up next was City Hall, where Cullman City Clerk Wesley Moore took the spotlight. Following a tour of Cullman Electric Cooperative, the class jetted to explore Cullman Regional Airport with Ben Harrison. Breakfast was sponsored by Citizens Bank & Trust, and lunch was sponsored by HomTex.

February’s Leadership Session was Quality of Life Day. Directors Sammie Danford (United Way of Cullman County), Dawn Owens (The Link of Cullman County), and Dusty Baker (Cullman County Commission on Aging) all spoke at the Chamber before the class left for a tour of the Cullman Wellness & Aquatic Center with Cullman Parks & Recreation Director Nathan Anderson. After a lunch presentation from the Cullman Association of Realtors’ Cindy Dyer and Beverly Hinkle, participants visited new Fire Chief Brian Bradberry at the Cullman Fire Station and then received a tour of Our Lady of Sorrows at the Shrine of the Most Blessed Sacrament in Hanceville.
Upcoming Chamber seminar to shine light on workplace harassment

There’s hardly been a more relevant time to discuss workplace harassment, and the Cullman Area Chamber of Commerce wants to help you be more informed on the topic.

HR managers and employees alike will be able to do just that at our upcoming Chamber 201 class on Wednesday, March 28.

Chamber 201 is free, but reservations are first-come, first-served. Space is limited, so contact the Chamber at 256-734-0454 or info@cullmanchamber.org to save your spot.

March 28. The event lasts from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. in the Chamber’s Walmart DC Room, includes free lunch from Sweet Peppers Deli and covers a vast variety of information.

Chamber 201 is facilitated by Director of Member Services Magan Bartlett with help from the entire Chamber staff. The class serves as a basic introduction to what the Chamber does and educates new and old members alike on how to get the most out of their membership.

Topics include:
- Member Services
- Events
- Leadership Opportunities
- Communications & Marketing
- Finance & Administration
- Community Development
- Entrepreneurship & Education
- Business Development & Investor Relations
- Business & Community Advocacy

TOURISM PROFESSIONAL OF THE YEAR AWARD
Recognizes a person who has made a significant contribution to the tourism industry through more than five years of innovation, inspiration and industry leadership.

To nominate your local favorites, go to surveymonkey.com/r/2018TourismAwards or stop by the Chamber to pick up a form in person. The deadline for nominations is Friday, May 11.

To reserve your tickets to the 2018 Cullman Area Tourism Awards, contact 256-734-0454 or info@cullmanchamber.org. Space is limited, and seats will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis.
The Cullman Area Chamber of Commerce & Visitor Center has lifted “interim” from Roger Steele’s title and made him the permanent Director of Tourism.

The move was recently approved by the Chamber’s Executive Board and reaffirmed by the Chamber’s tourism board.

Roger has been hard at work since joining the Chamber staff in late October. Over the last four months, he’s been responsible for forming a Smith Lake Advisory Committee to develop a new website promoting the lake, vastly increasing exposure of the Visit Cullman Facebook page, assisting in the development of a more user-friendly Visit Cullman AL mobile app, and locking down Smith Lake as the site of the 2018 Fishers of Men Southeast Region 2 Championship to be held in November.

Currently, Roger’s top priority is establishing a strategic plan for tourism focusing on four key areas — Smith Lake, sports marketing, religious tours and agritourism.

“Roger comes to us with almost 20 years of sales and marketing experience,” said Chamber President & CEO Leah Bolin. “He has a passion for Cullman and has proven himself to be a valuable asset to our team and for tourism in Cullman County.”

Roger is a Cullman High School graduate and received his bachelor’s and master’s degrees from UAB. An accomplished writer, he’s won multiple awards from the Alabama Press Association and had academic work published in The Alabama Review. Roger and his wife, Karen, have two children, Amelia and Nathan.
