HISTORY

Coweta is a city located in Wagoner County. According to Wikipedia, "Coweta was named after a Lower Creek town on the Charahoochee River in southwestern Georgia and was first settled by Muscogees about 1840." The City of Coweta's website states that "In 1827, William McIntosh, along with Creeks from Coweta, BA, Lochapoka and Big Spring arrived at "Three Forks" of the Arkansas, Verdigris and Grand Rivers. By 1839 & 1840, these settlers had spread northward along the Arkansas River where Coweta, Broken Arrow and Tulsa are today." See more information about Coweta here.
