

"WHERE SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY BEGINS"

Member Spotlight

Michelle Reynolds is Director of Development at Three Rivers College. In that role, she is responsible for fundraising efforts across the 15-county service area, leading the Alumni & Friends program, and also serves as executive director of the Three Rivers Endowment Trust, the 501(c)(3) organization that raises funds on behalf of Three Rivers College --- and other duties as needed!

Some of the upcoming efforts include a golf outing, 5K in Dexter, and a Day at the Ballpark with the St. Louis Cardinals, scheduled for July 29. To keep informed about upcoming events, go to <https://trcc.edu/development/events.php/>. And if you are a Three Rivers Alumni (TRC considers all of its former students as alumni, not just graduates!) you can go to <https://trcc.edu/alumni/> to share your information and receive communications through the College.

Michelle serves in the local community as a board member at the Sikeston Regional Chamber and is chairperson of the ambassador program to be rolled out soon. She's involved in other local efforts, including the Sikeston Regional Women's Show and Sikeston/Bootheel Area United Way.

She and her husband, Jimmy, reside just outside of Sikeston with their two sons, Cooper and Jacob.
