

NCDCTA

North Carolina Dressage and Combined Training Association dedicated to education, the recognition of achievement and the promotion of the sports of dressage and combined training

NCDCTA Junior/Young Rider Committee

Presents

Lendon Gray

at the Dressage4Kids' TEAM Program Clinic

for young (21 & under) dressage riders

Saturday, June 10 - Sunday, June 11

Designed to find young dressage riders who show promise in the competition ring and out. The program organizes local clinics throughout the US and from these clinics participants will be selected for national clinics. The recent national clinic in Florida included instruction from Robert Dover, Michael Barisone, Alison Brock, Debbie McDonald and George Williams.

Follow the link below to submit an application. Applicants must include a video with specific requirements for their level. There is a $20 fee with the application. Eight to 12 riders will be chosen by Dressage 4Kids and will be invited to the clinic. Cost for the clinic is $235 + stabling fees. The clinic includes two private lessons with Lendon Gray, auditing of other student sessions and four lectures.

Beautiful Edelweiss Farm in Raleigh, NC, will be hosting the two day clinic and details will follow.

MARK your calendars for JUNE - Juniors and Young Riders!

Get your Applications in to Dressage4kids and we can bring Olympian Lendon Gray together with expert lecturers and other talented riders in a fantastic two day clinic.

<http://www.dressage4kids.org/emerging-dressage-athlete-program/>

