Jason B. Martin also serves as PCA General Counsel and according to PCA President Ray Benedetto, DC, "Jason Martin has made massive contributions to the Chiropractic profession and PCA, through his wise counsel to PCA and its members, thorough research into legal issues and especially his general legal knowledge as it applies to diverse issues that PCA deals with on a near-daily basis, such as hotel contracts, by-laws, legal cases, interpretation of rulings, lease agreements, and a host of related matters. I also hasten to add that Jason is an integral part of PCA's faculty, and is a frequent presenter at PCA programs. Perhaps most importantly, Jason is a life-long learner. If he doesn't have a complete grasp of an issue, then he digs into the matter until he has both a feel for the issue and an ability to translate it to PCA's benefit."
