

CCIA Communications Intern

The California Cannabis Industry Association is now accepting applications for the position of Communications Intern.

Some of the duties for the position are as follows:

- Graphic design
- Research news stories
- Update all social media platforms: instagram, facebook, linkedin
- Update media list as needed

Desired Skills Needed: Journalism or communications background, graphic design skills, proficient editing skills, proficient writing abilities, sense of immediacy, detail-oriented, creative.

This internship will provide the opportunity to gain experience in crafting communications strategies for the leading trade association in a very dynamic industry. You would be working hand in hand with skilled political operatives who are at the forefront of affecting change in the state and nation.

We are looking for applicants who are interested in working hard and learning about the evolving cannabis industry. California's regulated cannabis industry is ever-changing, maturing, and filled with opportunities to make a difference.

This internship will require 10-15 hours per week and does provide a stipend.

For more information or to submit a resume for consideration please e-mail josh@cacannabisindustry.org