2019 Call for Presenters

Dear Presenter:

SFFMA is currently accepting applications for workshop presenters for our 2019 Annual SFFMA Conference in Longview, TX. Training workshops will be on Monday, June 24 and Tuesday, June 25 from 8 a.m. – 6 p.m.).

We are accepting proposals for workshops that are 1 hr 45 mins, 4 hours, 8 hours or 16 hours that would cover some of the following objectives: Firefighting (FFI and FFII), Certification Coordinator, Industrial/HazMat, Wildland, FD Management, Safety and LODD Prevention.

Compensation: SFFMA doesn't offer monetary honorarium nor travel/per diem assistance but provides complimentary full conference registration, instructor certificate for workshop(s) taught and CE certificates for other workshops attended.

SFFMA Mission: Promote, Unify, Represent, and Educate the Fire Service of Texas.

About SFFMA: The SFFMA is one of the largest trade associations in Texas. The 143 year old organization is the oldest and the largest fire and EMS service association in the state. Membership includes 1200 fire, EMS and International departments, 20,000+ individual members, and 80 industrial fire brigades. The cornerstone of the organization is the Certification Program for firefighters, which encourages training, education and certification for all emergency responders. The SFFMA founded and now supports and sponsors the world's largest fire training school, at Texas A&M University, providing instructors and professional service on the TEEX Fire School's Advisory Board. In addition, the association is extremely active in its legislative efforts that affect the fire service of Texas. For more information, visit www.sffma.org

SFFMA promotes training workshops at www.sffma.org and in the InfoFire Magazine that is mailed to our entire membership in March of each year.
