Featuring live music from The Silver Arrow Band. The Patrons Ball is one of the signature social events of the year in Wyoming. Patrons from near and far come to renew acquaintances and see old friends, meet new people and make new friends, and network with leaders of industry and government. All in a setting like no other – immersed in the art, collections, and history of the Center’s galleries. Nowhere else can you enjoy companionable conversation while surrounded by the art of Thomas Moran and Frederic Remington or enveloped in the story of such an important historical figure as William F. “Buffalo Bill” Cody. (Buffalo Bill Center of the West) Cost $350, Sponsorships available, reservations required
