

women in engineering

ACEC
of Minnesota

Professional Development Luncheon Series

The Women In Engineering (WIE) Professional Development luncheon series provides a meaningful opportunity for participants to identify and develop professional competencies that will support them in contributing to their organizations and communities, and advancing their career goals.

MARK YOUR CALENDERS!!

$20 for members $40 for non-members FREE for Students

11:30am Registration & Luncheon 12:00-1:00pm Program

**Titles & Dates are Subject to Change

OCTOBER 22, 2017, MONDAY

Wendy Nemitz, Nemitz Enterprises – Communication for Women Leaders: Leadership Fails and What to Do About Them

Location: Barr Engineering

NOVEMBER 19, 2018, MONDAY

Gayle Roberts, Chair of Stanley Consultants' Board of Directors – Evolution of Leadership: A Personal Story

Location: Barr Engineering

FEBRUARY 4, 2019, MONDAY

Christine Wiegert, Director of Marketing American Engineering Testing – “Conflict Engagement: A New Model for Engineering Firms”

Location: WSB University

MARCH 11, 2019, MONDAY

Kristine Kubes, Kubes Law Office, PLLC – Whose Idea is it anyway? Intellectual Property and Related Issues for Engineers

Location: Barr Engineering

APRIL 15, 2018, MONDAY

Panel of Women moderated by Deb Reider AKF Group: Being a Project Lead

Location: WSB University