

Information on Bridges Career Academies For Graduation Programs

The 'Green Honor Cord' represents students who have completed a Bridges Career Academy. By participating in a Career Academy, students take career specific courses and participate in real-world business experiences that prepare them for college and/or employment in a specific career.