

SOUTHFIELD AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

I Will...Be a Partner

As a Partner, you are a bona fide business leader. Your involvement promotes your company as a business leader that is committed to the prosperity of the community that you serve. Your commitment and involvement facilitates your success and provides you with access to the leaders in the business community, while you create connections.

Visible partner, platform for leadership and tools for growth.

A Partner receives access to exclusive Chamber services, including tickets to signature Chamber events as well as opportunities to present and speak. Additionally, the Partner level of membership comes with prominent e-news features and access to attendee lists from key events as well as the additional perks listed to the right.

"The Southfield Area Chamber of Commerce does an excellent job connecting Southfield businesses and individuals with new opportunities, connections and resources. The Chamber works closely with the City of Southfield as they strengthen the City's business community through the many innovative programs, events and initiatives that they sponsor. The Southfield Chamber always goes above and beyond in their service to their members and the community."

- Mayor Kenson Siver, City of Southfield
