CBIA Professional Women in Building (PWB) 2019 Committee Descriptions

Communications Committee

Facilitates the internal and external communications announcing and advertising the council's programs and industry efforts by creating and distributing content through email blasts, social media posts and contributions to industry publications. The Communications Committee is responsible for updating and organizing the CBIA PWB webpage and social media pages and distributing the chapter-wide Quarterly Newsletter.

Membership Committee

Develops and supports programs and recruitment strategies to stimulate membership growth and retention and provides suggestions for improvement. The Membership Committee ensures members are invoiced in a timely manner and facilitates dues sent to NAHB (national) PWB each month. This committee also monitors monthly membership reports received from NAHB and reviews records for accuracy, verifies cancellations, and follows up on delinquent members.

Programs Committee

Determines council event topics and themes, hires keynote speakers, and organizes programs for member meetings, seminars, and other events. The Programs Committee is responsible for implementing the logistics and all planning-related aspects of the CBIA PWB Bruncheon at PCBC (Pacific Coast Builders Conference) each June, the Little Black Dress and Tie Social in October, and brainstorming new events to promote the council's activities and goals.

Sponsorship Committee

Coordinates the solicitation of sponsorships for the council and its activities, including the annual Strategic Board Planning Session, the PCBC Bruncheon, and the Little Black Dress and Tie Social. The Sponsorship Committee is the point of contact for all council sponsorship and fundraising activities, organizes and allocates sponsorship dollars and donations and reports such activity to the council Treasurer, and communicates all pertinent announcements and materials related to sponsorship.

Educational Outreach Committee

Generates awareness of the positive role the homebuilding industry plays in improving our environment, creating jobs, and building our communities, while inspiring a new generation to become leaders within our industry. The Educational Outreach Committee is responsible for all activities pertaining to collecting and awarding council scholarships and works closely with Programs to incorporate fundraising for workforce development and professional industry opportunities into council events.

Legislative Committee

Works closely with CBIA to determine the state legislative measures on which our council should take action and inform our council on the various ways PWB can support its CBIA on a government affairs and/or organizational basis. CBIA Liaison duties include, but are not limited to, drafting and submitting letters of support for current California Bills on behalf of our council and working closely with Communications to disseminate pertinent legislative information to our council and industry contacts.
