MESSAGE UPDATE FROM PAMELA SMITH-DROLL:

I started out my week by being asked by Matt Ehrhardt, Assistant Director at EHOVE to be the Presenter for the EHOVE Breakfast of Champions Awards Ceremony that was held in the Young Chef Inn on the campus. I was asked to talk about my career of 38 years in business.

Several of our members had requested a Financial Lunch & Learn Seminar that teaches you how to read and understand your business financials. The Chamber listens to our members and we have created that exact seminar for you! We have a few seats still available so be sure to go to our website to purchase seats Part 1 and Part 2.

I would also like to remind all of our members to get out and meet fellow members at some of the Business After Hours events. These events allow you to get to see different member businesses and learn about what they do. Amber and I will be going over to Hoty Enterprises at 5pm this afternoon to help them celebrate with a Ribbon Cutting ceremony and a tour of their new office.

Members: You can always go to the Chamber Calendar to see all of the upcoming events and Business After Hours that the Chamber has planned.

At anytime if you have a question or need something please give me a call. The Chamber is here to support each one of you as a member through educational and business seminars, networking, partnerships, marketing & advertising programs. You can reach me here at the office at (419) 625-6421.
