

A vibrant photograph of a Memorial Day barbecue spread. In the foreground, there's a platter of corn on the cob, some wrapped in foil, and a colorful vegetable skewer with red, yellow, and green peppers and onions. In the background, a large platter is piled high with various meats, including ribs and chicken, along with other BBQ items. The text 'MEMORIAL DAY' is overlaid on the top half of the image in a large, stylized font with a red, white, and blue striped pattern and a white outline.
