Who We Are

The North Metro Building Council (NMBC) is a group of active builders, trade and affiliate members who promote the work of the HBA of Metro Denver to the members within the Northern metro region. The geographic area covers from the North-West along Highway 36 to the North-East along Hwy 76; which includes Boulder and Broomfield counties as well as western Adams County.

Membership requirement

Current HBA member in good standing. There is no additional cost related to becoming involved with North Metro Building Council and to be a part of all of the NMBC meetings or activities, although some individual events may have a registration fee or other cost.
