Follow the Chamber!

Dear Chamber Member,

As we wind down another exciting and growing year at the Boone County Chamber of Commerce we look forward to continued growth and success in the coming year. In order to have continued growth and success we hope you will continue to be an active member to the Chamber. Be on the look out for the 2017 Member Guide and Directory that will hit your mailbox in the next week. This guide is filled with valuable information regarding the coming years' events, programs, and mission oriented activity of the Chamber and the Tourism Bureau. Be sure to take a good look when it arrives.

The year's end always brings with it a tremendous sense of accomplishment. It's nice to reflect on all that took place in 2016. The Chamber is eager to enter the new year and is already looking forward to accomplishing our goals set for 2017, including some new ideas we know will spark the interest of our members.

As 2016 comes to a close, the Boone County Chamber of Commerce sends you warm holiday wishes!

Have a great week!
