Dear Chamber Member,

February is cruising right on by and after a beautiful weekend its time to get back to business...or should I say, Business After 5? The folks from Genesis Development jumped in to host this networking event tomorrow night at their Boone location, 927 8th Street. We've had a few months off so take advantage of this opportunity to get out and meet up with other chamber members tomorrow night at 5pm!

I've been stopping in every few days to check on our remodeling progress at 903 Story Street. You will notice a slab of plywood covering what is the start of our new street-side entrance. RH Grabau crews punched a hole to allow concrete base to be poured last week. Inside all of the original window openings have been expanded back to their original size. Should be very impressive when the replacement glass is installed.

We had another great turnout for the first 2016 Chamber Forum last Saturday. The next one is scheduled for March 19th. And our Boone Home and Garden Show, a late winter tradition for nearly thirty (30) years, takes place this Friday night and all day Saturday at the Fairgrounds. Stop out at see what's new for spring.

Have a great week!
