

EDUCATIONAL EXCELLENCE

HIGHER EDUCATION

Twelve institutions of higher learning in Bismarck-Mandan provide continued education for residents and attract students from across the nation.

Bismarck State College (BSC) is a two-year college offering associate degrees as well as vocational technology degrees. It has been designated the National Power Plant Operations Technology and Education Center, offering a four-year program geared toward the energy industry and power plant operations. Power plant technology isn't the only four-year degree offered on BSC's centrally located campus.

United Tribes Technical College (UTTC) provides an outstanding education to the Native American people of our region and around the country. For more than 42 years, UTTC has served more than 10,000 American Indian students from more than 75 federally recognized Indian Tribes across the nation. In addition to serving American Indian students, UTTC is a regionally accredited institution, having achieved accreditation through the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.

The University of Mary, a private Catholic university founded and sponsored by the Benedictine Sisters of Annunciation Monastery, offers more than 60 undergraduate degrees, 14 master's degrees and three doctoral programs on its campus, as well as online and through distance learning in locations around the U.S. Students have opportunities to study in Rome, Italy, and Arequipa, Peru, among other study abroad experiences. Rooted in the Benedictine values of respect, hospitality and service, the University of Mary is committed to educating students to be lifelong learners dedicated to the joy of service.
