

Washington County Higher Education

Marietta College Private, coeducational, nonsectarian, undergraduate, residential, contemporary liberal arts founded in 1835. One of America's 37 "Revolutionary Colleges," institutions with origins reaching back to the 18th century

Marietta Bible College Students will receive complete and expert teaching in the Word of God. Fundamental, soul-winning preachers and teachers will comprise the faculty. Preachers will teach preachers.

Washington County Career Center Adult Technical Training It is our mission to design, develop, and implement training that meets the needs of local business, industries, and individuals. We are dedicated to providing progressive solutions that lead to increased productivity, enhanced individual employment opportunities, and quality of life in the Mid-Ohio Valley.

Washington State Community College For more than 40 years Washington State Community College has been a provider of opportunity-the opportunity to realize dreams, to enhance skills, and to broaden understanding. Whether it is one of four students graduating in the first class of 1973 or one of more than 424 graduating currently, it is your success that matters to us.

American National University Is dedicated to the training and educating of men and women for a full life and a successful career in a number of general and particular fields. The College seeks to give students a broad competency in a field of specialization and an understanding of and respect for their own and others' ideas and thoughts. Graduates of National College should understand and practice their responsibilities to their families, their fellow men and their communities by becoming effective and contributing citizens.